

The Future of International Education: Duty of Care in a Dynamic and Connected World

Duty of Care, Resilience and Innovation for a World-Class Education Community

Dorsett Kai Tak Hong Kong
Friday, 6 November, 2026

Registration

Welcome Remarks

Keynote Speech
Advancing Hong Kong as a Global Education Hub

Featured Sharing
Maximising Experiential Learning: The New Playbook for Safe and Impactful Student Travel

Featured Sharing
Patterns, Pressures and Priorities: A Data-Driven Look at Health, Wellbeing and Travel Risks in Education

Tea Break

Panel | From Insight to Action: Leadership Priorities for Safe and Successful Global Learning Experiences

Lunch

University Leadership Track

Best Practice Sharing | From Visibility to Action: Supporting Global Student Mobility Through Digital Intelligence

Panel Discussion | Navigating Complexity: Technology, Intelligence and Risk-Informed Global Student Mobility

International School Leadership Track

Best Practice Sharing | When Wellbeing Becomes a Crisis: Leading a Coordinated Response on School Trips

Panel Discussion | Beyond the Itinerary: Managing Health, Wellbeing and Security Risks on International School Trips

Tea Break

University Leadership Track

Simulation Exercise | Exchange Student Scenario

International School Leadership Track

Simulation Exercise | Safety in Experiential Learning Trip Accident Prevention

The A to Z of Crisis Management for Education Sector

Closing Remarks

The conference programme is regularly updated as speakers and sessions are confirmed.
Agenda details, speaker line-up and timings are subject to change without prior notice.*